

College of Ophthalmologists - Ophthalmology Foundation Training of Trainer

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

The participant will learn techniques to improve teaching and assessing in the clinic and operating room

PROGRAM FOCUS

1. Surgical competency
2. Work-based assessment (OSCAR Phaco)
3. Giving Effective Feedback
4. Reflective Learning

Short Interactive Course

Discussion

Small Group Activities

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course the participant should be able to:

1. Effectively use OSCAR Phaco as a tool to develop trainee's cataract surgery competency.
2. Giving effective feedback to trainees to facilitate their learning in clinic.
3. Guide trainees on using reflective learning to facilitate their learning in clinic.

SPEAKERS

Professor Dr. Karl Golnik

Neuro-ophthalmologist and Professor,
Department of Neurology,
Barrow Neurological Institute, United States
Ophthalmology Foundation's Chair for Education

Dr. Meenakshi Swaminathan

Paediatric Ophthalmologist and Strabismus surgeon,
Code Eye Care,
Chennai, Tamil Nadu, India

Assoc. Professor Dr. Sujaya Singh

Consultant Ophthalmologist
Department of Ophthalmology
University of Malaya

REGISTER NOW!!

9th July 2026, Thursday

8.30 am - 5.30 pm

Bronx VI, Level 14, Berjaya Times Square Hotel, Kuala Lumpur

Target audience:

Program directors and ophthalmic educators interested in education in ophthalmology

Scan QR code to start your registration

8 CPD Points

REGISTRATION CLOSED: 26th June 2026

Registration fee :
RM 400 (LOCAL)
RM 700
(INTERNATIONAL)